

Donald John VanLoon

September 15, 1942 - May 16, 2026

Donald John VanLoon, 83, passed away peacefully and surrounded by family on May 16, 2026. Donald resided in Romeo, Michigan and previously Canadian Lakes and Clinton Township. He also wintered in Fort Myers, Florida. He was born and raised in St. Clair Shores.

Donald is survived by his lifelong and loving wife of 62 years, Veronica VanLoon, sons Michael VanLoon (Sherry), and John VanLoon (Heather), granddaughters Jenna, Elaina, Lauryn, and Emma, and brother, Al VanLoon (Marguerite). He is preceded in death by his siblings, Marvin, Helen, Mary Jane, and Yvonne.

Donald loved spending time outdoors, hunting, fishing and golfing with his friends and sons, and soon to be grandson-in laws. He was a loving husband, proud father, and joyful grandfather. Donald always filled the room with laughter and loved to fill his home with good friends, family and a home cooked meal on the table. His love knew no limits and he will be missed by many.

“ Dan Van loon is my uncle my mother’s youngest brother in a very nice person. As a child growing up, I stayed mainly with my grandparents Don’s mother and father and I seen him constantly and have a lot of good memories. And even though I haven’t seen him in a few years, I’ll still miss him not being on this earth rest in heaven uncle Donnie.
