“ The Sherby Family had me as their babysitter for Craig back in the '70's when they lived in the condo complex in Clinton Township. Donna and Ron were such sweet people and I enjoyed taking care of Craig. I am sorry to see both have passed away, and am assured Heaven is a better place. Sending my condolences to their sons.

“ When my brother Ron talked about Donna at our family dinners at home, we were so excited that someday she would be in the Sherby family. Donna's family and ours grew up in Faith and Love at Iroquois Avenue Lutheran Church. I was in Ron and Donna's Weddings and they both were in Don and mine. Family meant a lot to Donna. Donna laughed, danced, and enjoyed life. Donna made you feel like you were family. I will miss you my dear sister. You told me that you wanted Don to sing at your funeral, he is singing to you in Heaven now.

“ Donna has been a long time cherished friend...our family. We watched/shared our families growing up... baptisms; Christmas tree cutting; playing cards Hand and Foot....keeping a running score for over 20 years; going to events; trips to each other’s homes; and going to movies...and so much much more. I have enjoyed our phone calls.....we will miss her. Donna was so fortunate to have her family’s love, care and support; she adored her family.
