“ I have know Eddie since I was 9 years old and I met him on Woodbine He would take June and I everywhere with his dog Cam on tow! He was like a brother to me always.Eddie had me laughing from the time I saw him.He was the funniest guy ever!What I'd give to hear him explain the fight between himself and the kangaroo just one more time!!Eddie lived hard and loved hard. There isn't a thing he wouldn't do for you, or anyone. Or two families have melted together and I feel so very fortunate to have them as our extended family. Eddie I love you and I miss you always. Wish I was there to see the big greeting in heaven! To all his kids and family I extend my condolences to each and everyone of you,I'm so sorry❤️
