“ So sad for all.I met Eddie about 38 years ago with his father. They believed in my desire to open a business on Mack ave after many said no. Eddie always struck me as someone to be admired.He would stop in to visit and tell me I was great. He was always dressed perfect and helpful if I needed advice.I would go to the restaurant for a drink and we would talk about many things. Always positive.I loved when he would see me out front and pull over to show me his new car and tell me how he enjoyed the garden.I always felt I was hanging out with a movie star.When I told him how cool he was he would laugh.What a brave man and mentor. I will miss him very much. May his family be blessed. Thank you Eddie! CLASS always.

“ *My dear friend since 4th grade. We used to feel sorry for Eddie because he had to go to Italy every summer with his folks to visit family and couldn't hang out with all of us. LOL.
A dear friend and a really good man. He will be sorely missed.*
