“ Cindy & family, this is Lori's sister-in law, Marilyn Huhn. I am so deeply sorry at the passing of Ed I know that there are no words to ease your sorrow, I really loved your Ed he always made me laugh & I just enjoyed talking with him he was a special man. I was shocked when Sandy told me about his passing. It wasn't that long ago I messaged him on Facebook that I was hoping to see him this year wasn't ment to be, My thoughts & many prayers are being said for you & your family at this difficult time , God Bless All ❤️❤️❤️❤️ Marilyn & John

“ It just happened too fast, we were hoping you'd pull thru, but God said enough pain and wanted you home. You definitely left a mark on your world, with the great family you and Cindy had, plus the grandkid that loved you so much. There is an empty spot in my heart for my funny little brother who would always have a cup of coffee with me when we got together. May you Rest In Peace under God's Grace.

“ Dear Cindy & Family, our hearts go out to you in the loss of our dear friend, Ed. He was an amazing man and he will be dearly missed for his sense of humor and ability to make everyone around him smile. We consider ourselves so blessed to have Ed as our friend and to have been able to share this life with him. He will be dearly missed and will always hold a special place in our hearts. With loving thoughts & prayers.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Ed's passing and pray for comfort for his family. Growing up, Mr. Ed always provided a very fun home, where I spent many many days of my childhood (Heather and I were best friends). He supported us in all of our kooky childhood adventures and was such an involved father. I remember his many, many notebooks categorizing his home videos:memories made with the family he loved and adored. I remember his love for Polish heritage, funny songs and Disney World. He was a great man and I pray his legacy goes on forever. Thank you. -Jessica (Challis) Morley

“ I will miss Uncle Ed. He was funny and liked to joke around. He had talent for playing the keyboard and the accordion that we all enjoyed at family gatherings. No one will be able fill his shoes in our family. God bless him until we are all together again. May God bless and watch over aunt Cindy, Jennifer, Valeria and Heather along with their family with peace and comfort.

I have been trying to think of the right words to say....but there really are no right words. Eddie was my older brother. As kids we fought and shouted at each other, but then we worked it out and played pranks on the neighbors and got into (kid) trouble together. As adults time flies by and you never get to spend as much time as you wish you could with your loved ones. I am going to miss him, the sound of his voice, his laugh, hearing him talk about how Cindy put up with all the silly things he did, hearing him brag about his girls and his (sons) as he called his son in laws and of course brag about those grandkids of his. I am very saddened for Cindy and Ed's family, however, I am positive that he is finally resting peacefully in God's arms with no more pain. God hold you all in his arms and give you peace.
