“RIP, Uncle Eddie. You were one of my very first "bosses", besides Grandpa, at Motor City, when I worked there at the ripe age of 9, after we moved back to Michigan from California. I will remember you forever young, and I think I was a flower girl at your wedding to Aunt Ann, but my brain is now a bit foggy on all those years. Sending love and light to all my cousins during this sad time of grieving. Glad my mom is there to be with you all. xx Lynn Abate-Johnson”

“Since 1979, Eddie was not only my boss at Motor City, but a good friend. I had many good times not with him but with his family. With MC, he treated his staff as family, with Halloween and Christmas parties, including my going away to the Coast Guard. My prayers and love go out to the family In the wind..... punker”
