“ Sandy, you will be remembered as a loving cousin and sincere man, and you will be missed. So many memories over the years, from all the childhood dinners , birthdays, holidays, camping trips, dodging your snowballs and trying to avoid tickle take downs, you and "the older boys" of the neighborhood with baseball, Halloween, deflating our backyard sleepover tent...To all the important life events that you chose to be a part of. You were there to share in ALL the kids baptisms, birthday parties, first communions, graduations, weddings, our Christmas Eve's, Thanksgivings.....you always took the time to share in these special times. I will miss you Sandy, and your loving, firm, sincere hugs. XxOOOO Patty

“ As an integral part of my childhood, the passing of Sandy touched me deeply. It's funny that as we grow older we grow apart. The only thing we have left are the memories in our hearts. They will always be there. I pray that your hearts heal and your tears turn to smiles with those memories. Remember the Soupy Shuffle:-)

“ Dearest Cousin Sandy,
I have so many memories, we saw each other nearly everyday of our childhood. We played together, prayed together, cried together and laughed together. When I saw you last in September at Stephen's wedding, you gave me such a wonderful hug I will remember it forever.
I remember how we would check out what each other family was having for dinner and then decide where we would like to eat. Many times you sat at our dinner table just as I sat at yours. Our mothers wouldn't blink an eye but just set another plate on the table. We spent many a great weekends camping at "The Lot". Our summers were filled with building forts in the weeds, putting on shows for the neighborhood (you were always a good sport taking whatever role we gave you).
We were cousins but more like double cousins with double the love. I will miss you. Love, Harry and Sherry Veatch
