“ Thinking of you and keeping you all in our hearts and prayers. Enjoy the many memories that come to mind at this time. All the good times that you had and celebrate "Grandma's" great life. The only ones that hurt now are those family and friends that are left behind. She is happier than she has ever been!

“ Hello, I wish to express my condolences to you. Although I never met your loved one I can certainly empathize with your loss. I have found great comfort from the Bibles hope that Jesus spoke of at John 5:28,29. When you have a moment please look it up. I hope that you too will be comforted by this. Sincerely, Amy Bartzen

“ Hi Mom, We had good times together and right now we are making cookies for Christmas. Since my mother was always so far away, you were my mother and will always be in my heart, as in the hearts of all you touched. Thank-You for everything :) Dena
