“ Don, Janice and Frank, I was saddened at the passing of your Mom. I know that nothing is more devastating than losing those who loved you unconditionally. One of my fondest childhood memories is climbing up the covered stairway to your apartment above the store. Your Mom was always waiting for us with a drink and a treat. Once, your Mom even came to my rescue! I was in 5th or 6th grade and I wanted to wear nylons, instead of anklets (pantyhose were not yet invented). My Mom said that I was too young. I knew that I'd never change her mind, so I went to my bedroom, disappointed and crying. Your Mom happened to stop over and, when she figured out what was going on, she defended my cause and talked my Mom. I couldn't believe it! That day I felt like I was all grown up as I left the house wearing nylons for the first time! We are VERY lucky people to have had such fabulous parents. They were a generation of devoted mothers who really understood the meaning of family. I thank God every day for mine and I know that you feel the same. My thoughts are with you and the entire family.

“ I will always remember Mrs. Prezzato's kindness and support. When I first met her, she worked at a fabric store that I visited as I was learning to sew. When I was 15, she recommended me for a job that helped me get through high school and college. She was an amazingly accomplished woman, but always took time to share useful advice about cooking, sewing, homemaking and other life skills at which she was an expert. She always put her family first and was so proud of all of them. She was a graceful person whom I will always hold in high regard. My condolences to her family.

“ Dear Uncle Pap & family, Dear Uncle Pap & family, Please accept my deepest condolence on the passing of your beloved wife & mother...my dear Aunt Liz. I know she had been ill for some time and it was a blessing but I mourn with you now at my office in Opole, Poland. Although, I cannot pay my respect in person I shall light a candle at the old Towne Cathedral, The Holy Cross, in her honor. I shall remember her energy and how she lit up the room with her warm smile and charm. Warmest Regards, Joe Provenzano
