“ Eric was a great coworker and friend. Always wore a smile and had a great sense of humor. His mannerisms and sayings onsite at events kept people happy and working in some of the most challenging days. Puscifer concert will never be the same without you there. Rest in peace friend

“ Mike and I will miss Eric's wonderful ribs that he would make. It was so fun to watch him fishing with his kids at the lake house. You could tell he was really enjoying himself . I know some wonderful memories were made there . He was not only a loving husband to my cousin Crystal but a wonderful , loving and active Dad to Tommy and Hannah. He loved camping and making anything and everything for Crystal. It was exciting to come visit the house and see what project he was working on or had recently finished. You Could always count on Eric for some good tunes and a cocktail. CHEERS to you until we meet again. Love Mike-Laura-Chris and Ali Desrochers

“ The loss of Eric is so sad, I hired him at the State Theatre (now Fillmore) to be the video tech. He was always upbeat and had a great attitude and really good work ethic. My sincere condolences and prayers of comfort go out to his family and friends. Way too young...may his soul be at peace!

Randy, I'm Eric's sister and I remember Eric talking about this job and you. He thought highly of you and loved that job. We would occasionally talk about the bands he met and how Dio was so cool and down to earth when he played the State Thank you for your kind words.
