“To the family of Eric, I am so very sorry to hear of Eric's passing. I was a customer, friend, business associate, etc...of Eric, and I just heard this today. Eric was always so generous, honest, funny, and he was always willing to go that extra mile. We may have lost one physically, but the memories he gave us all will be with us all forever...and for sure, Heaven gained a great one in Eric.”

“You never measure the greatness of a man by the amount of things he accumulates, but by the amount of people he touches in a positive way throughout his life. Eric Trott was a great man. I thank GOD for the opportunity to have been able to meet this great man. I mourn, and my heart hurts for the family and their loss, but rejoice in the fact he has gone home and is no longer suffering. And I am so very glad to have had this man touch my life in such a positive way. Eric, "Your life was a blessing, Your memory a treasure... You are loved beyond words And missed beyond measure."”

“They've always said that if there's just one thing we all should adopt from Jesus Christ is a bit of Eric Trott, not comparing him to the Father. However the one thing Eric adopted from the Father was GENEROSITY. We can't say enough of how much this guy went above and beyond in this area; now this act alone is not just what's going to lead him to be seated with the Father. His spirit will forever live on. I prayed that he would bounce back to his great health, however God had other plans. As the saying goes, He is in a much better place now. My boy was the real deal, in business and all around in life. He was always fair. The Angels in Heaven are saying, well done my son in whom the Father is well pleased. My deepest, most sincere condolences go out to his beautiful kids, fiancée, and extended family. May God continue to bless the Trott family and help them to heal from their loss. One love the Dutty.”

“Words cannot express how saddened we are with the loss of Eric. He was such a gentle and generous man that never judged. He was fun, full of life and someone you just seemed to gravitate towards. His outlook on life was remarkable and never complained about his circumstances. We have been truly blessed to have known Eric and have him in our lives, for even a short while. Our condolences and sympathy go out to Heather and his family as he will be missed but never forgotten.”
