“ Working with Fabrice was fun. We both were given a cactus and his was named Major and mine Captain. With his office not having windows, I adopted Major and Fab was such a funny person. When he would come into my office he would always say Major turned on him and we would both laugh so hard!...Having Major now is like having Fab still around. Thanks for a ton of fond and funny memories Fab! RIH

Yes he was kind, he gave me a job during the economic recession of 2009. I sent out 100 resumes and he actually gave me one of my few interviews. I didn't pass his waiter test that he gave everyone. But he did find me a spot on his staff and I worked there for 8 years. The French army trained a good one how to lead people. Thank you Fabrice.
