“I will always remember Mrs. Biondo for her dedication to family and her welcoming nature. The one thing she would often ask me when I was visiting with Rosemary is "How are your children?" She was a great example of strength and dignity as she parented and grandparented through the years. May the Italian family traditions grow strong in her memory! It's been my privilege to be a friend of this wonderful family led by a wonderful caring woman.”

“Carissima Zia e Madrina, sono già tre anni che ci hai lasciato ma il tuo ricordo rimane indelebile per la persona semplice che eri e per la forza che hai dimostrato nel portare avanti la tua famiglia soprattutto quando sei rimasta sola. La tua positività la mostravi attraverso il tuo sorriso che solo la morte ha potuto spegnere. Sono contenta di averti potuto riabbracciare quando ancora, nonostante gli acciacchi, mi hai ospitato con grande affetto. Ti ricorderò nelle mie preghiere assieme ai miei affetti più cari. Tu prega per noi.”

“Michael, Rose and Families, Losing a parent is the hardest thing ever! Her memory lives on in each one of you! Her teachings, recipes, hugs, quotes, style and traditions all live on! We are reflections of our parents and Grandparents. Unfortunately, I was in Port Huron with my son and I was not able to pay my respects this evening! I will be thinking of your Family during this very sad time!”

“My dearest Aunt Frances, so many memories of our blessed families together in love and joy, flood my thoughts these past days especially. Somehow, through the darkest of days, you found light at the end of the tunnel; a sense of strength I admired in the face of such tragedy that engulfed us. I treasure the innumerable memories on Rosetta including family holidays and shopping sprees with my mom behind the wheel. Your recent encouragement to me, while you falling so ill, reverberates. Most of all, I will treasure your special love for me as Godmother and Aunt. Our long conversations on the phone and those over MacFlurries at your kitchen table will remain special. Our trip to Niagra Falls when the kids were so young, I as well, is etched amidst my best lifetime experiences. You are in my heart forever and I was blessed to hold your hand as the angels arrived. Thank you, Aunt Frances. Love forever, your niece, Rosi Biondo”
