“ Dear Azar family, I was saddened to hear that Frank lost his battle with his illness, and wanted to express my condolences. What I remember about Frank was that he was a good UAW member, that he loved to be of service to others, and conveyed an enthusiastic intensity for his local union and his union brothers and sisters. He will be missed.”

“ Our family has lost A kind hearted, compassionate, sincere, handsome man. MY brother Frank has had the good fortune of a beautiful wife, 4 beautiful children , and grandchildren that brought joy to him. I will miss his sweet smile, endless supportive nature his tell it like it is, direct and honest personality - This I loved about him. He taught us what courage is during his illness this past year. To my sister-in-law Sherry, my brother's best decision was marrying you. Thank you for all the love you have given to our family.”
