“ There are no words to explain our sadness upon hearing of the passing of Frank. He was a "class act" in every way, and had an infectious smile. He was the man, the myth and the legend, and will forever live in our hearts.

“ Mr. Gallo was such a gentleman when I took my grandsons for their Haircuts. I feel so fortunate to not only knowing Frank but also meeting Frank's father Tony. It was easy to picture Tony as a young Golden Glove boxer. Rest in Peace Mr. and Mrs. Gallo

“ Frank was always smiling!! Perfect hair, never out of place! His charisma and demeanor was so attracting! You wanted to get into a conversation with him just to hear him say, “Hey Baby, what’s going on Joe and how is the family?” He will be missed dearly, no doubt!! We always had a great time in IAD Members Outing and at the meetings!! I even had the pleasure of golfing with Mr G and Jim Galloway at the Glacier one September morning long ago!! Just precious times, times you never forget!! Sincerely, Joseph Chirco

“ What will you miss most about Frank J.?

I will miss our weekly phone calls. I miss especially miss calling him on his birthday in December and him telling me I call you in two days on your birthday. Frank never missed calling me on my birthday. My dear Cugino Frank was more to me than a cousin, he was my older brother. Nina, Joe and I were very close to him and his sister Vita, just like his mom Mary and my mom Josie that were the only two siblings. I will also miss Frank telling stories of our grandpa Sam and grandma Mary. I was very young when they passed away and I had very few memories of them. But Frank was the oldest and he would tell me stories of them all the time. Frank loved his family, everyone. He would do anything for them. I use to spend a lot of time at my Auntie Mary's house and I'll never forget one night when Frank came home and we were all asleep. Frank brought home a puppy and left him on the landing and went to bed. Well that puppy started to cry and Frank just kept on sleeping. Uncle Tony, Auntie Mary, Vita, Nina and I were awoken by the noise. We all discovered this puppy in the box. Auntie Mary went to wake up Frank and he told his mom isn't he cute. Boy was she mad. Needless to say, Frank convinced my dad to take the puppy even though my my mom against it. Frank use to tell his little cousins (us) about a street called knock knock street. Frank said when you drive on that street people who died were knocking on your car. The funniest thing I remember about Frank is he use to hang out at 9 mile and Jefferson, which was close to where I lived growing up. Frank had a lead foot when it came to driving. He was speeding down 9 Mile and cops were in pursuit. So he came to our house and told my dad his Uncle Louie that cops were after him. So my dad had him stay in the house and my dad went outside to talk to the police. (This was in the early sixties). My dad told the police that it was his car and he was rushing to get home because he was about to pee his pants. The police believed my dad and Frank was so relieved. I can go on and on about stories and the life I shared with my dear cousin Frank. I loved him so much and I will always have these memories of him. Ciao Cugino till we meet again. Mary Ann

What a genuine person Frank was. Always asking how the family was doing. Actually listening when you talked with him. I remember when we were both younger and I (in my twenties) and Frank (in his thirties) were playing racquetball. I was always going to beat the "old man" but, never did. Frank was always a gracious winner and would give me pointers on the game. He will be missed.
