“ *Michelle and Mike,
So very sorry for your loss. Gary and Sandy were great friends and neighbors growing up on Normandy. My Mom and Dad cherished their friendship. I remember our kids when they were little going over to sit on your front porch with Sandy whenever we visited mom and dad. I remember Gary taking Corky out for a walk every evening after work. Gary would always stop over to see my Dad or if he saw Steve and I visiting. He was a great guy and will be missed. Love to you and your families,
Jeanie and Steve Collins*

“ Dear Uncle Gary, you have been a great part of my life growing up next door to you. I remember Mom setting you and Aunt Sandy up on a date. From that day forward you continued to date and married. You were always such a quite and sweet soul to us kids. Your signature clothing was always a checked shirt. You always visited the sick and sat quietly by their side. You will greatly be missed by all of us! Rest In Peace my dear uncle! Love you, Diane
