“ I'm sorry I waited so long to post on here. It's hard being so far away and this passing has had a very hard impact on my life. I would have to say of George would be God we were still kids, really didn't know very many people in Michigan, I was a hard headed punk and went over with my Dad to see my Grandfather. George was there and right away its like I knew him my whole life. We hung out that day and watched a movie. The reason this memory means so much to me, is this was George. He was the type of person who you could feel comfortable around outside of your own comfort zone. He was a great man and like myself we love sports. I will miss following his life, but it doesnt mean I will stop following the lives of Marcie, Eric and Samantha. Because they meant everything to my cousin who was there for me when i was out of my element. Aunt Mary and Uncle George, I can't even begin to tell you how sorry I am. Marcie, you ever need anything I wont be far away, even if you just need someone to yell at or whatever. Sal, Joe and Leann, same goes for you guys. I love you guys. RIP George Thanks for the great memories

“ I am very sorry to hear of the loss of George.. but know that he lost his life doing what he loved to do best and that was helping others! I never got the chance to personally meet George but I grew up with his wife and sister in law, and they are both very sweet woman and just reading all of the comments to George he also was a very sweet caring man! Stay strong Marcie for you beautiful children and family, cause they need you more now and just remind them each and everyday that daddy is their Angel now because he was someone else's angel when he went to be with God! I will continue to pray for you all during this difficult time, as I just recently lost my brother and know what you are going thru! Prayers for the entire family and stay strong!! XO

“ My prayers and thoughts go out to the Danis family, words can not begin to explain how sorry I am for your loss. My brother is friends with Sal, and I went to high school with George and haven't seen him since, but I always remembered him being nice to everyone and never judged anyone. He was always a wonderful, helpful person. I'm sorry I unable to make it to the funeral home, but you are all in my thoughts and prayers.
RIP George, you will always be greatly missed, but never forgotten.

“ Great guy in every way, we always shared alot of laughs as we would argue about the lions and chat about good ole Roseville. I will remember him as a big guy but with a bigger heart and how much he loved his family.

“ John 15:13 greater love hath no man, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Mary, Sal, Joe, Leann, Marcie

The pain of your loss will be slow to heal, but hopefully eased some by the knowledge that George was involved in a greater cause unexplainable on this earth.
