

Gerald Robert Adams

June 30, 1948 - March 28, 2025

ADAMS. Gerald, R., March 28, 2025 Age 76. Beloved husband of Julie for 54 cherished years. Loving father of Mike (Amanda) Adams. Proud grandfather of Ashley and Brandon. Dear sister of Nancy Warazinski. Jerry was a passionate hunter, fisherman and antique collector. He loved spending time outdoors flying his pigeons and fishing in his pond. In his down time, he enjoyed watching movies and playing euchre. He was a man of many stories that he liked to share. Some of his famous quotes were, "I worked hard for what I have and harder for what I didn't get" and "I might not know it all but what I do know, I'm not sure of". Visitation Tuesday 3-8pm and Wednesday 9-11am at Wujek-Calcaterra & Sons 36900 Schoenherr at Metro Parkway (16 Mile Rd). Interment Resurrection Cemetery. “Gerry was a good guy, a mentor and a meticulous collector of fish decoys. He taught me a lot about collecting, people and history. His passion for truth and history is one I will never forget. I will forever miss him. My condolences to the family. Jeff Chung, M.D.

“I played euchre with Gerry in Lapeer. He was a very nice guy, loved to talk about his pigeons. He invited me over to see them, wish I had gone now. RIP.
