“ We just met Gian last year when he was building our new home. He was a true professional, a very nice person with a kind heart. We are so sorry to hear of his passing. We truly enjoyed getting to know him, hearing about his children (of whom he was so proud) and his wife who he dearly missed. We extend our deepest condolences to the Palazzolo family and pray that your memories will comfort you. God bless you.

“ To my beloved aunt, cousins, John’s children, and grandchildren. Those we love can never be more than a thought away. For as long as there is a memory, they will live in our hearts forever.

Life can change in the blink of an eye. Time is precious. Enjoy every waking hour, let those dear to you know how special they are and how much you love them.

How fortunate you were to have shared John’s life and love. We lived so far away, and I wished we had had a chance to spend more time together. I always respected and loved him. I wish I had had a chance to say goodbye.

My heart goes out to all of you. Your cousin Nina

La nostra amicizia è durata troppo poco, quasi 5 anni, ma per me è come se fosse stato da sempre mio amico. Lo ricorderò per sempre perché Gianfranco era come un fratello che purtroppo se ne è andato via troppo presto.
