“ Cheryl - Kelsey, Family & Friends ... I can only imagine how you all have been feeling about my buddy Glenn and his passing because truly, we all process it in our own way. I'm still feeling like I'm going to get a response from him in his "rough" but wonderfully unique sounding voice! I'm sure there are many other family and friends having the same experience. All of us still trying to wrap our heads around this very unfortunate scenario. I'm missing being able to just reach out to Glenn (the big lug), but I'm saved by the memory of the moments of his laughter, quick quips & his WTH good-natured attitude!! He was an immensely generous man. I'm thankful to have called him my friend & colleague. Sending Prayers, Strength & Peace, TC & family

“ Glenn, you will missed by so many people! Loved your sense of humor my brother and Utica Polish Club has lost one good caring man! Coming to the Club and knowing you always were there to give support and share a joke or two was such a great thing to share with so many of us! God Bless the Dyer family during this difficult time.
