“ Mrs. Sorgi was one-of-a-kind. Her smile radiated happiness & sweetness for all. She loved her family, but had a big enough heart to hold a special place for Fraser athletics. I was lucky enough to meet Gloria in the early 80s when Mary was a hockey cheerleader. Mary inherited her enthusiasm and love for anyone associated with the team from her mother. Gloria made everyone feel like family and would not let you get away without a great big Grandma kiss. Mike Perkins said it best when he referred to Gloria’s passing with the words: “The City of Fraser lost its Grandma.”
