

Grace Ann Morelli

November 12, 1954 - March 28, 2026

MORELLI, Grace Ann (nee Tocco). March 28, 2026. Age 71. Passed away peacefully, surrounded by the love of her family. A devoted wife, mother, Nana, and sister, Grace's life was defined by her warmth, strength, and unwavering dedication to those she cherished most. She was the beloved wife of John Morelli, with whom she shared a lifetime of love, partnership, and treasured memories. Together, they built a family rooted in tradition, loyalty, and deep affection.

Grace was a proud and loving mother to Anthony Morelli and his wife Danielle (DePerro) Morelli, and to Lisa (Morelli) Kullman and her husband Kelly Kullman. Her children were the center of her world, and she took great joy in guiding, supporting, and celebrating them throughout their lives. Nothing brought Grace more happiness than her role as a Nana. She adored her grandchildren Gino Kullman, Marco Kullman, Mia Morelli, Ali Morelli, and Giovanni Morelli-each of whom held a special place in her heart. Her love for them was boundless, and she found great pride in watching them grow.

Grace was also a dear sister to Josephine (Valenti) Lazaris and her husband Peter Lazaris, and was "Auntie Gracie" to numerous nieces and nephews. She treasured her family deeply and maintained close, loving relationships that endured throughout her life.

Grace will be remembered for her kindness, her strength, her sense of family, and the love she gave so freely. Her presence filled every room with comfort and care, and her legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“ We are so very saddened to know of Grace's passing. Grace lived true to her name. I am blessed to have had such a kind and gentle person as my next door neighbor. She would always call out a friendly greeting and share kind words when I was out gardening. I will miss her terribly. Our condolences to the grieving family.
