

Gregory Lawrence Muzyk

April 4, 1949 - June 13, 2026

Gregory Lawrence Muzyk, age 77, of Sterling Heights, passed away after a long illness on June 13, 2026.

He was born on April 4, 1949, in Detroit, Michigan, to the late Lawrence Muzyk and Albina (née Gilewski) Muzyk. Gregory was raised on Lumpkin in Detroit and later graduated from Warren High School.

Gregory married the love of his life, Pauline (née Vassallo) Muzyk, on April 18, 1970. Together, they shared 60 years of faith and commitment to each other, raised two children, and cared for many dogs.

Gregory proudly served his country in the U.S. Army and then dedicated 34 years of his life as a design engineer at General Motors. He invented an automotive air compressor system for which he received a patent in 1993.

After retiring in 2002, Gregory enjoyed playing golf, and was very proud to have gotten a hole-in-one at Sunnybrook Golf Course. He also enjoyed caring for his lawn, traveling, and spending time with his grandchildren. Throughout his life, he remained grounded in his Catholic faith.

Gregory had a variety of interests. In his younger years, he loved racing muscle cars. He spent a lifetime working on anything with an engine. He was a talented woodworker, building items that ranged from custom lamps to a single-person sailboat. He was a die-hard Detroit sports fan, cheering on the Lions, even in their lean years.

Gregory loved to laugh and joke with family and friends, and considered no one a stranger. Above all, he had a deep and enduring love for his family.

Gregory is survived by his wife, Pauline, children, Cher (Joseph Longobardo) Muzyk, and Lawrence (Amiee) Muzyk, and grandchildren, Hana, Gregory, Osprey, and Atoosa.
