“ Hal has been one of my best friends since high school. He and Sheila are godparents to my three daughters and he certainly fulfilled. that roll. Hal is an example of a real gentleman and gentle man.We enjoyed each others loves of fine art and theatre. Some of my best memories are of the times he took us to the DIA and became our private docent for the entire morning and then we shared lunch in the beautiful courtyard and discussed things we loved seeing.Hal could talk art endlessly and ,of course I could talk theatre endlessly. He was always there, even in some trying times and he always showed me the light. I won't hear his voice anymore but I will still talk to him. I'm sure God will find him a fascinating addition to heavens angels.

“ I first met Hal when we were being trained as Docents at the Detroit Institute of Arts. He was funny, kind & one day when I was struggling with a personal issue, he took me for coffee & let me unload my heart. That was just the kind of person he was. My heart breaks for his family. You will be missed Hal.

Hal was the standard and model for what a fine gentleman should be. He was fun loving and gracious, he loved Detroit and the Tigers and U of Michigan sports. My brother, Roger and I looked up to him as our "big brother" as he was our close cousin. We will miss the Tiger ball games we shared with him and the wonderful dinners afterward. His expertise at the DIA was a gift to us and all he shared with. He will be dearly missed by us and all who knew and loved him. He is now on the pathway to greater glory with the Angels of Light and will be raised on the last day in glory everlasting. God bless him and keep him in the shelter of the wings of our Lord.
