“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the Montpetit family on the death of my best friend Harold. We had known each other for well over 65 years and it was a true pleasure hanging around with Harold and the rest of our crazy group. I think Harold and the rest of us enjoyed life to its fullest back in those older days. As time went on we never lost contact with each other knowing that someday we would all meet our maker. I've always said "Nobody gets out of here alive" a quote from the song by the Foo Fighters titled DOA. It was a true pleasure to know that you and I and the rest of us survived life and the Vietnam War together. It was a bond that held us more together than anything else. We all had more friends than anyone could ever need in times of need. Rest well Hellrod, the hell you have been facing all these years is finally over. Sue and I will never forget you or your family. Semper fidelis
