

Helen A. Eggert

November 20, 1937 - May 23, 2026

EGGERT, HELEN A. Age 88, a cherished resident of Washington Township, Michigan, peacefully passed away on Saturday, May 23rd, 2026. Born on Saturday, November 20th, 1937, in Bad Axe, Michigan, Helen's life was a rich tapestry of love, dedication, and resilience.

Helen was predeceased by her beloved husband, Gerald Eggert; her parents, John Will Lockridge and Roxie Dema Lockridge; her brother, Donald Lockridge; and her stepson, Scott Eggert. Her enduring spirit and warmth leave a lasting legacy in the hearts of those who knew her.

Helen is survived by her devoted family: her son, Richard (Lori) Sheppard; her stepchildren, the late Scott Eggert, Jerri Lynn (Eric) Eggert, Sally (Ray) Voyles, and Duane (Anna) Eggert. She also leaves behind her cherished grandson, Derrick (Lydia) Sheppard, granddaughter, Krista (E.J.) Steinke, and a treasured great-granddaughter, Crue Steinke. She will also be remembered by her step grandchildren Alena, Cassandra, Jarrett, Matthew, Lauryn, Tommy, Michael and Daniel as well as many step great grandchildren.

Helen enjoyed a fulfilling and accomplished career as a Senior Residential Auditor for General Motors, a testament to her meticulous nature and unparalleled work ethic. Beyond her professional life, she was an avid decorator, known for her talent in transforming spaces with creativity and flair.

Helen possessed an innate love for shopping estate and garage sales, always searching for hidden treasures and unique finds.

Remembered for her vibrant personality and remarkable ability to get things done, Helen's beginnings were humble. Raised on North Ave, she managed to rise above challenges, taking on tasks such as raising chickens, always doing what was necessary to thrive, yet never losing sight of who she was. Her story is one of fortitude and grace, serving as an inspiration to her family and those privileged to have known her.

No services are planned at this time, in accordance with her wishes. Family and friends are comforted knowing that Helen's extraordinary legacy will continue to inspire and guide them.

Arrangements have been thoughtfully entrusted to Wujek-Calcaterra and Sons-Shelby. Helen will be dearly missed by her family, friends, and all who were touched by her indomitable spirit and generous heart.
