“Mom it's just one of those days.....you're on my mind constantly. I wish with all my heart I could pick up the phone and hear your voice just one more time. It's almost been a year and I guess I should start to accept the fact that your gone. You know I'm a little stubborn, and that is just not happening. I know you lived a long life, hard at times with 6 Kids, Dad (lol), and I am happy that you're no longer in pain. Life goes on, you're probably freaking out now that you know all the things I've done in my life. But you were always just a phone call away. I miss you more then any of my words can express. I love you, miss you, and truly wish we could stroll through Partridge Creek just one more time. Most of all I wish I didn't live so far away, so I could have spent more time with you and dad.”

“Although I was very bad about visiting you, for years I would look out my kitchen window hoping to catch you staring back at me and waving. When we did talk I found out you were doing the same thing. I miss you my friend and will remember your beautiful smile and shining eyes. I am glad you are now with Our Lord and your Walt.”

“I met this beautiful woman one time, but her grace and charm were apparent. I am good friends with her daughter and certainly if children are a reflection, she was a wonderful woman. Condolences to the Perosky family, my prayers are with you at this time. Reuben McDaniel”
