“ On behalf of the Capuchin brothers, I offer my deepest sympathies on the passing of Chuck. It is truly humbling to receive memorial donations in honor of Chuck's life. Please be assured of the brother's prayers for the entire Milbreath family during this great time of grief. May perpetual light shine upon Chuck.

“ Dearest Susie and Milbreath family,
About 45 years ago I was blessed to be welcomed into your family home, greeted by your Dad with his boyish smile, sparkling blue eyes and hints of shyness heard in his soft voice. He was always so kind and polite. His inner former U.S .Marine self was visible in his career ethos and fatherhood...be respectful, disciplined and give your best at all your works. I remember when he showed me an award he received from G.M. Tech Center about 40 yrs. ago for a design he created...he was beaming with pride explaining the project...it was over my head but I appreciated his exuberance. Quite an accomplishment given the hundreds of thousands employees, he was a very smart man.
My fondest memories of your Dad however were only a few short years ago watching him lovingly care for and sit with his wife, your Mom, during mass at SS John & Paul Church on Saturdays in their senior years. He faithfully pushed her chair in and out of the church, up to the altar for communion and they sat side-by-side as devoted spouses to each other with contented smiles in their time together. Their 50th Wedding Anniversary was a special joy for them both that year at SS John & Paul during mass, Fr. Buersmeyer asked them to come up before the the altar for a marriage blessing. Your Dad did not hesitate a second, and he with a pep in his step so proudly wheeled his bride of 50 years to the altar of God before the whole church. Your Mom was so beautiful that day...hair styled, make up perfect and dressed so pretty...your Dad was clothed in outwardly pride and joy...I could feel and see the love and happiness they had in each other that day...it filled my heart to its depths to witness they have come full circle back to their first love in each other. It was so inspirationally beautiful! God knows the goodness of this quiet man, your father, and our Lord and Savior will reward him with reuniting him with his bride, your mother. Rest in peace together Mr. and Mrs. Milbreath.
