“ I am sorry that you are not here any more....but I know you with the angels....please kiss to the people who proceeded you.....I know they are embracing you as I write this. You always made me laugh....who is now going to take your place? That is a pretty big act to follow....and You have made a lasting impression on me. I love you and I miss you. Love David Rosati

“ I will miss you so much grandma. You taught me so much, and gave me the most wonderful memories that I will share forever. I am so happy that my children got to have you as a great grandmother, how blessed they were to have you in their lives. I love you grandma, I will always have you in my heart.
