“Uncle Jack, This site could not hold 1% of all the stories and memories so many have of you. You were the epitome of class and kindness. As my godfather, I have fond memories of you always coming over for my birthday (always in your suit and tie). Your many variations of Santa during Christmas each year, will always put a smile on my face. I also remember the trip to Watkins Glen and our trip to Wisconsin for the vintage car races with your nephew from Italy. You have left your mark on this world and on my heart. May Christ Jesus grant you eternal life. Love Always, Your godson and nephew, Dominic "Nick" Torres”

“Uncle Jack.Thank you for always making me feel special. You were a class act with impeccable taste that always knew someone wherever you went. Your large circle of friends and family was a testament of your kind and generous spirit. Some of my fondest memories with you are our Torres Christmas parties when you dressed up like Santa and the many many impromptu visits to my parents for cookies and coffee on the weekend.I will hold these memories close to my heart and cherish them always.Love you forever.Your god daughter and niece Michelle”

“"One of my many memories of Jack was his constant checking up on me and my school work during grade school and junior high. He knew I was having trouble and created a sign he would use to check on me from two houses away. I still remember the "a-ok" sign he'd make with his hand, expecting me to respond the same way to ensure I had done my homework and was doing well... This later translated to any kind of success in my life. He would always check to see if I was "a-ok". I'll never forget his caring nature, his kind eyes, and that knowing smile. Thank you for always caring, Jack. We're still "a-ok"."
