“ My favorite memories of grandpa are the summers when I would spend the night with grandma and grandpa. On one of these days, I hid next to a dresser for a least an hour, waiting for grandpa to come out of the bathroom. When he finally walked by I jumped in front of him with a hugh shout( intending to scare him), He did jump back, but he also cursed in Italian all the way through the house, I wasnt expecting that.

Another memory would be eating a bowl of ice cream with grandpa and grandma when we sat down to watch evening TV usually a varitivity show, each time like a ritual before bed time and it had to be butter pecan ice cream.

Its hard to speak of grandpa without mentioning them both, they were a team for sure. We all were entertained by their debates at all family gatherings, usually ending with grandma waving her hand at him as if to say she was right and he was wrong and he would say something like "go sit a a tack". It may sound crazy but I wouldnt trade it for the world thats my life with grandpa and grandma. Love always grandpa and I'll see you soon in heaven, Kiss grandma for me.

“ Cousin John, Ida and Joe, I am so sorry for the loss of your father and my uncle. He was such a good man and did so much for the entire family. Who could ever forget the Sunday dinners at Grandmas when everyone had to be there? Live chickens in the backyard, ditali cooking and the best meatballs and sauce in the world. All of this will be missed. God Bless to all.

“ I will never ever forget the Christmas parties in the basement! The family, the food, the card games, well, I would like to forget about those card games, that's where I learned my second language (Not Good) lol!

I am very proud of my Grandfather and all of his many accomplishments. You know Grandpa would always acknowledge us in his "own special way" how proud he was of us in our accomplishments, and on Monday 12-17-12, I just want him to be proud of all us, his family, as we send him off.

Grandpa told me that he was blessed when I did Grandmas send off, I just want to bless him and our family once again.
