“I was so sorry to here that my old school friend had made his transition even though he left many memories for myself and others to cherish. James was the fun of the class he was witty and funny with a sweet spirit I don't think it was any one in the class who didn't love James RIP my friend.”

“James, you sure were funny. Always calling me "Dennis" whenever I'd bring lab specimens over to you. You took the time to show me what paperwork needed to be filled out, in order to give blood, and what needed to be returned without making me feel stupid. I appreciated that. I will remember you as a funny and sassy guy. You always had a smile on your face. It was contagious. Thank you for that.
God Bless you and your family.”

“May the peace God gives sustain your family during this difficult time. Lean on one another as the days ahead become too hard to bear alone. Share your memories, they will be a source of joy. Seeing the promises in God's word the bible will help you to gain strength and fortify your hearts, granting you comfort. (2 Thessalonians 2:16,17; jw.org)”
