“Today, October 23, 2017 it has been three years since I lost my husband, Mike. So much has happened in these three years and not a day goes by that I don't remember some moment in our life together. I always really thought I would be the one to go home first so it's been tough but I have found an inner strength I never knew I had and I know I will see him as well as all my loved ones (family and friends) again someday. Till then Rest In Peace and be happy Mike. ❤️”

“I have fond memories of a team of 3 co-workers with an age difference of 8 years from the youngest to the oldest. Everyone would test our combined musical knowledge and we were never stumped even when those who made the challenge had to go to the Internet to see that we were right. Mike filled in very nicely for the early days of rock and roll and always knew the answer. He even identified a song where the hint was that the background singers were saying what sounded like "get out your mop". Mike was always proud of his wife and two sons and they were foremost in his thoughts and conversations. Best of everything to Mike's family and thanks for letting us borrow him for awhile.”

“Dear Martin Family, we are so deeply saddened for your loss. Mike was such a wonderful man, kind, loving and never without a nice thing to say. Such a good guy! Oh how I am going to miss "talking music" with this guy! He had such great knowledge of music, lyrics and bands. No one got my passion for this stuff quite like Mike. He will live on through the music in my heart forever. May God bring you strength and may your warm memories bring you peace. God Bless you all!”

“To my brother, whom I loved with all my heart. No one could have asked for a better brother. I miss you so much but I know it was time for Jesus to take his child home so he would not endure anymore pain and suffering. I know mom and dad greeted you with open arms. Until we meet again, I will hold you in my heart and remember all the good times we had together. Thank you God for sending me such a wonderful brother with such great values in life.”

“We could not have asked for better neighbors to live next to while our kids were young. Two loving parents raising two fantastic boys. Though Mike is no longer physically here with you, his spirit and love remains with the family he left behind. His legacy now continues with Dan and Joe and those two beautiful grandsons he would have given anything to see grow up. Though you can no longer see him, he is still with you. We love all of you.
