“ *Marlene,
I'm shocked and saddened by Jim's passing after just talking to him on the phone less than a week ago. He sounded happy and was his usual funny self. The last thing I said was, "I love you, buddy!" I'm so glad I had the opportunity to tell him that. I was there when you met Jim, and had the great pleasure of standing up in your wedding 43 years ago. What a wonderful day that was! Jim adored you and you adored him, and it was apparent to everyone the love between you. My heart is broken for you. With love and sincere sympathy from both Ron and me, dearest friend. ❤️💔*

“ Marlene:

We're so very sorry to hear of your loss. To say your Jim was "special" is an understatement. He was a kind, caring and generous man who clearly loved you and his family . . . His life was certainly well-lived. We pray that as you grieve, your 43-years together leave you with loving memories to help cope with Jim's passing. Know that you're in our thoughts and prayers, and take heart in the knowledge that Jim's now reaping the well-earned rewards of an exemplary life. May he rest in peace.
