“I will remember Jim fondly as one of my older cousins, who we sometimes got into a bit of mischief with Up North at my Grandparents cottage! Also, my husband, Rich and Jim were both stationed in S.E. Germany in the Army at the same time. Grace and I were both privileged wives to live there as well! We have fond memories of traveling from Goeppingen where we were stationed (near Stuttgart) to Augsburg (near Munich) to share Christmas of 1967 with our only family (Jim and Grace) that year. Grace made us a nice Italian spaghetti dinner! And we actually corresponded by letter in those days....to make a date! No phone of our own and certainly no cell phones. Jim just sent us his address with a hand-drawn map and we found our way through the rolling hills of beautiful Germany! I know it made our parents (and us) feel better to know that we were spending Christmas with family! We both came back to the U.S., lived our lives, mostly at a distance but occasionally saw each other at family gatherings and were always kept informed of each other's life events through our wonderful mothers! Our hearts go out to Jim's family at this difficult time!”
