

Janet Marie Grzymkowski (nee Mile)

March 8, 1959 - January 4, 2022

GRZYMKOWSKI, Janet, M., (nee Mile), age 62, passed away on January 4, 2022 surrounded by her family. She was born March 8, 1959 to the late Chester Vincent (Chet) and Helen (nee Kukawski) Mile. Janet graduated from Edwin Denby High School in Detroit, MI in 1977. She worked a variety of jobs, making many lasting friendships along the way. She leaves behind her loving husband of 31 years, Gerard; her children, Matthew (Leona) and Julie (Mike); her beloved grandson, Matteo Jameson; her siblings, Jim (Sue) Mile and Carole (Doug) Frattini; nieces, nephews, and many dear friends. She served as lunch mom for Warren Woods Public Schools and had the opportunity to help the children there. She will be remembered as a caring, loving mother and friend to all. Her family is grateful to all those who knew her and loved her. “ Dear Janet. If I were to write an eulogy, I would stop writing now, and write a book instead. I will try to keep it short and direct , . . . You were the sweet. My best friend and life companion, for iialmost forty years. I am certain all that knew you or just met and spoke to you would realize what I know. Janet was a loving and caring person, a unique, honest and good hearted, friend, wife and mother. To say 'she will be missed 'is an enormous understatement. To keep only memories in my heart, will have to be enough. Your loving husband.

“ Dear Cousin, What fun we had as kids growing up together. Running in and out of your house chasing each other, playing with the hose on hot summer days, and being told to stay out of the living room. Christmas Eve was my favorite. All the family together eating some of the best foods our mothers ever made. We may have lost touch over the years, however I knew if my parents needed something you would always be there to help. RIP dear Janet

“ Janet would always send planters peanut jars with m/ms and chex mix with nuts as well for us to snack on during Deer season. She always remembered that I couldn't eat nuts, so I got a special one without. God Bless you. 🙏

“ Janet & I went through elementary at St David's, Jr High at Goodale then finished our school days at Denby High. I'll always remember the two of us skipping lunch at Goodale & instead going to her house on Outer Drive where she'd make us some delicious chef boyardee ravioli & we'd share many laughs! Also Janet helped coordinate my surprise 21st birthday party by getting deli foods from Kowalski's where her mom worked. Janet's laugh & warm heart will never be forgotten.
Condolence & Prayers to her family.
Rest in Peace my friend.
