“ Len,
I am very sorry for your loss of your dear wife Janet. The life you two shared is truly a remarkable story. She is at peace and is no longer in any pain. Please be aware that your friendship has meant a great deal to me.

“ Janet's husband, Leonard, was dedicated to his beloved up to the last moment of her life.
He adored Janet and everything about her. At this time, his positive thought is that she is not suffering.

They were married and truly enjoyed each other for 64 years. Janet maintained her dry sense of humor almost to the end when she was in Beaumont for a month and at home with Elara Hospice for three weeks.

*Please keep Len in your thoughts and prayers,

Leonard, when you share your life with someone for 64 years, I can only imagine the heartache that you are going through. I always enjoyed walking over and talking to you and Jan. And you had to love her flowers. My heart goes out to you, dear friend.
