“ *Words can't no express the sorrow that your family is feeling I knew Jason in High School. Him and my brother Rick were good friends and sports buddy's and Jason would visit our home frequently when we lived in Warren.
He would call our Mom (Mom) he was like a brother to us. And like Jay Mayle said he was always smiling.
Well now he will be smiling on all of us down here.
Rest in peace brother Jay 💔*

“ I met Jay through my best friend Greggy. It truly was pleasure of knowing Jay. We made some fun memories in High School. Lots of laughs, lots of song singing and poem writing. Such a great man with a very big heart.

To his family. Especially his beautiful children. I hope that, even though your world is so dark right now, you are soon able to see some light in the memories you had and you carry them with you everyday going forward. Rest well my old friend.

“ I met Jason a couple years ago doing some headshots for him. He was a gentle giant and such a blast to work with. We kept in touch since that point and always someone who was encouraging when I was down. His love for his kids and family was incredible and spoke of them often. Was looking forward to seeing him and his daughter soon and unfortunately, things didn't happen soon enough. He's going to missed and can't believe he's gone! RIP Bud “ Losing your brother is like losing a part of yourself. A special kind of hurt. You grow up together, share memories and support each other through all of lifes ups and downs. We miss you so much. Love you forever and always. ~ your little sister.

“ Jason was the most beautiful human I have ever met. He was my everything❤️ Jason was compassionate, he had the biggest heart, he was such a protector, he was silly and always willing to help. Jason loved life. He loved everyone in his life and always let them know that. My heart is completely broken and even more so for Jaeda and Nic. This has left a huge whole in our hearts that will never be filled. Rest in peace Jason. Be free. I love you. 💔💔

“ Jaeda & Nick, words cannot express how sorrowful my heart is knowing that we will never see your dad's face on this earth again. But, one thing I do know, he loved you both dearly, and he was loved greatly! May our memories together keep our hearts near until we are all in our final heavenly home...celebrating forever with no more good-byes. I love you. Hugs, Aunt Lana
