“I was so sad to hear of Jason's death and we want to express our most sincere sympathies to you and the family during this difficult time. Jason was a highly valuable and respected member of the CBP family and the effects of his passing are already being felt here by his co-workers here. For those of us that had the privilege of calling him "friend" outside of work, we were humbled by his kindness. Please accept my sincere condolences for you and the family on behalf of the CBP NA-TCET instructors from Laredo, Texas”

“Jason, we want to let you know that we all loved you very much. We have wonderful memories of you as part of the Gallagher cousin pack... thinking about all good times up at Holly with all 5 of us. We treasure those memories that you were so much a part of. We send our dearest, most heartfelt condolences to your wife, your mom and all of your extended family... we know we may never understand why you left us so soon but we know you are now walking with the Lord.”

“I retired last year and I never had the opportunity to work directly with Jason, but he fit the wonderful profile that others portrayed in their notes. Whenever we did come in contact, he was always very pleasant. I certainly was shocked and dismayed to hear of his passing. My deepest condolences to his wife, family, and friends - of which he had many. I pray for you. I believe Jason is at peace with God.”

“While we did not work together very often at CBP because we were in different areas, our paths did intersect from time to time. I always found Jason to be a very agreeable person and a very good officer and supervisor. Condolences to the family and Godspeed.”

“I retired a couple of years ago when Jason was still an ATCET officer. I worked with him at the Fort Street facility. Jason was my "ace up my sleeve". Whenever, I couldn't find anyone to do a task, or (more importantly) someone who actually knew what was needed, Jason bailed me out. When he made supervisor, it was long overdue. His even temperament and subtle sense of humor made him the kind of person everyone enjoyed. Your wife has a new Guardian Angel who'll never leave her side.”
