“ I am heartbroken as well as my husband Jim to hear this sad loss of a great friend. I've know Jason for around 35 years. We were very good friends in junior high and high school. I have a lot of memories with him. He made me laugh all the time and was always nice and happy to be around. He gave our oldest daughter Olivia her first job at Jimmy John's and I will always be grateful for that and his kindness. He is loved and missed by many. Our condolences and prayers go out to his wonderful family that always treated me like family. May God give his family and close friends the strength they need during this time. I'm truly very sad to hear this. We love you my friend, I hope you are making my sister laugh up in heaven.. God Speed and may you rest in peace. Love you, Sarah Allan "Kopy" and family.
