“ *First my condolences go to the Powell family. I don't know if this will make it on because it has been 2 years and did not know I could do this. Jeff was my best friend as everyone knows not only that he was like my second brother. I miss very much and all the fun times we had. I read what Adam wrote and it was right on point he also lived at my house off and on and always would clean babysit my new anything the most kindness person in the world. I will never forget him he travels with me as my gardening angel since his name and RIP are tattooed on my chest I will never forget our time on earth but I shall see you in heaven once again too friends and family my condolences. “ We send our love and condolences to Gerard and Linda for the loss of their beloved son Jeffrey. We can only imagine the great loss and pain that you are feeling during this sad time. We serve a loving and merciful GOD and sometimes we don't understand his will and timing but surely GOD had plans for Jeffrey and that is why he called him home. Gerard and Linda we will continue to pray for you and Jeffrey during this sorrowful time with the hope and knowledge that someday we will all be joined in GOD's kingdom. We love you.

“ As a teacher as Chippewa Valley I will never forget you and your crazy comments as you went by my room every day. Having had thousands of kids over the years, you made an impression I will never forget.

“ Little dude you have left such a tidal wave of emotion since your journey home to heaven. You have shown us all how to overcome diversity in the face of things that we will never face. To God be the glory for creating your precious soul so smart so hard so soft. There is a saying YESTERDAY IS HISTORY TOMMORROW IS A MYSTERY BUT.... TODAY IS THE PRESENT THAT IS WHY THEY CALL IT A GIFT. And you are the greatist gift left here in the present for us to enjoy until we will see you again.

“ Powell family, I was truly sorry to hear of your loss. Jeff was a good kid. I've always had fond memories of him(and especially that goofy smile). You were always one of my favorite families. You are all in my thoughts.

“ Jeff, though you have left this earth you are still in all of our hearts and memories. You always made a lasting impression on everyone you met. I will never forget you big brother even though we didnt always show it we both know how much we loved each other. You will truly be missed as well as your goofy smirk that you always made but made everyone smile. I still cant believe you are gone but knowing you are now at peace and that we will one day be together again makes it a little easier. Until then you will always be in my heart and in the many good memories I had growing up with you. Now you are my guardian angel and looking out for me like you always wished you could do. I love you Jeff!
