“ I've known Jennie for the last 10 years. She was one of my first patients, and over the years, she became a friend, too. She always remembered my birthday, as well as my kids'. I will miss her dearly.

“ Auntie Jennie was always so thoughtful and always sent me a card for Christmas and my birthday. I know she is in heaven with my grandma, Edna having the time of her life. :) My condolences to the family.

“ To our dearest and loved Busi,

We were all so privileged to spend your final two weeks with you. You are so loved and will be missed. Patrick looks for you each morning and Kathrine laughs just a little more when I sing to her.

I found a picture of the two of us, I was six and we were fast asleep in your bed, fast forward 26 years and there was Patrick in bed with you, his favorite cuddle buddy. I am so happy I had the chance to take one last nap with you last week.

I know in my heart that Jacob was there to take you home. How sad I am so have lost you, and yet I am so happy and at peace that you and Dziadzi are together with you greatgrandson. Kiss my baby for me and remember that our love is with you always, until the day we can be together again.

*All our love
Kathleen, Ron, Patrick, Jacob and Kathrine*

“ Aunt Jennie was one of the most thoughtful people I've ever known. She never missed sending a card for every special occasion. Thanks for all the fond memories of family get togethers through the years. You will truly be missed and will always hold a special place in our hearts!

“ Dear Jean-If ever my mom, (Lillian), had a sister, you would have been her! During these last few years, the two of you relied on each other and were there through thick and thin. Now you are both together with Dad (Mike), and Chet; playing cards like you used to do all those weekends. Oh how we would watch the 4 of you argue and have so much fun at it!! take comfort in knowing the 4 of you are playing cards again and dancing as you did for so many VFW dances and at the K of C dances. You helped show the 5 of us: Chet, Ron, Marleen, Rob and I, how to be friends and laugh through life. Thank you for being there for Mom and may God embrace you with the love you showed for so many while you were a gift to us. Love Always-Connie
