“I did not know you personally, but I did work with you one time, in dept 41, and would see you every single day, zipping up and down the aisles on that bike. Blonde hair flowing behind you. You stood out cause you most always wore bright colors, and thay blonde curly hair! I just saw you only weeks ago. Coming out of the bathroom, you commented to me about how gross some women can be. We had a laugh over that. I just cannot wrap my brain around you being gone from this earth. Its just too crazy. Someone so young and full of life. I cant even imagine the loss your family and your hubby feel. Im so very deeply sorry for the pain of loss they have to endure. But, hopefully knowing you are now with your mom, and in a beautiful place with so much love, that will help bring comfort. My deepest sympathies. You had, and still have, hundreds of 228 members praying for you all. MJ”
