“"I'm so sorry I can't be there today to join all of you. I tried, but the airlines wouldn't cooperate. "Aunt Jody" was one of the kindest, and most caring people I've ever known. We didn't see her, Uncle Henry and the cousins as much as we got older, but I wish we had. She always had a smile on her face and seemed to see the good in everything. I think of her often, and know she made a positive impact on everyone in her life. She raised great kids, coping with all those men/boys in one house! I'll remember her as a loving soul who I was always happy to see, and as a wonderful Aunt who deftly took on life's challenges with patience, perseverance, and a smile."

“Jody was the best grandmother I could have ever wished or dreamed of for my Nicholas. She was the kind of mother I always hoped to be and she welcomed me into her family with open arms. Even after Tim and I weren't together anymore she never once treated me differently. She was one amazing, classy lady.”
