“ Laughing, laughing...to the point of tears: my dad and Uncle John reliving their trip to Sicily still makes me smile. Dad didn't have a brother but he considered John his own. I am so grateful to have seen him and to have him talk to me and share the recipe for my dad's couscous and pics of olden day relatives...what an awesome guy who raised an awesome family and made this world a better place just by being. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Xxoo

“ It was always enjoyable spending time talking with John. His humor was most evident in his storytelling. I believe every time he recounted one of his experiences, he was enjoying them as if for the first time. He had a real love of life and a very good soul. My heartfelt wishes to you all on John's passing.
