“Uncle Johnny is coming to Buffalo...that is how I grew up...it was as if Christmas was coming every time the announcement was made. Grandma made family favorites and the party was planned so everyone can come at the time Uncle Johnny was arriving! When I was a little girl we were best buddies. He gave me advice on the kind of guys I should watch out for and the 'good ones' that are out there. He helped me to remember the important things. He was an amazing, loving man and so happy that we were family. I love you Aunt Maggie, Aunt Mickey and all the kids. My heart is aching along with yours. Love Always, Mary Jo”

“*JL and I go way back from 1977 when I was introduced to me by Terry McQuade and we hit it off right away I was only 20 years old JL helped mold me in the person I'm today. Always giving sound advice and helping interpret life's problems for me and getting me to understand people. Spending time with John and Magi who opened up there house to me and always made me feel welcome. The top things I remember about JL is his art of telling a story he could paint a perfect picture with words, Dago Red Wine that he would bring back from Buffalo after a visit with relatives and share with me at the house. His love for his Family and Friends if you called JL at 10pm and tell him you needed someone to talk to meet me at the Brewery he would be the first one there. I have been blessed by knowing him and believe that him and Neil Rogers are in heaven making tee times and still slicing the ball like mad.
I miss you JL!
