“ John and I spent much time wrenching on various projects at his house. He was an accomplished mechanic and an exceptional welder. He wasn't "in tune" with the internet, so I filled that void by getting the best deals I could find on repair parts. We complemented each others' talents very well. We also attended many estate sales together (both being "tool junkies") and usually ate lunch at various restaurants afterward. John was my best friend, and I will indeed miss him. Norm and Susan: I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I met John at the Shelby Music Society. I always admired his skill on the guitar and thanks to him, I know all the words to "Black Jack" He always took the time to compliment and encourage me on guitar- and always wanted me to play House of the Rising Sun. Every time I play it now, I will think of him. Linda Gerdel

“ Condolences, sympathies and God's blessings to John's family during this time. Through his good friendship with my Dad, made through one of his music venues, he became a friend to our entire family. Always attending our annual fish fry and entertaining us with his awesome talent on his steel guitar. Everyone could not wait to hear him play and were amazed by his talent. Perhaps he and Dad and my brother can play music together again.
