“ I’m going to miss John outside, next door, attending to everything. He always had a smile and a good sense of humor. Margaret liked John as well. God bless your soul my friend.

“ John was a wonderful friend to us-we enjoyed taking John and his lively wife Toni recently to Andiamos on the Detroit River for the Grand Prix. Race cars were easily viewed speeding by our table while we enjoyed a nice Italian dinner. John also helped us setup and tear down for our various functions while we were Presidents of the Sociable Scoundrels this past year. I’m so glad we had these special times with John and Toni. Your friends-Ray and Laura

“ I know our Good Lord must have a special need for our dear John in Heaven. I'm sure of this because i know how many fervent and sincere prayers have been offered for his healing and restored health. If we are people of Faith, we must find a way to accept what we cannot possibly understand. John will be terribly missed by the many friends that knew his big heart, and willingness to help those in need. My deepest and most sincere sympathy to Toni, Isa and John Anthony. Your many wonderful memories will sustain you through this sorrowful time and beyond. Sending Best Love, Bobbie LoCicero

“ John served our inner city churches with bread and sweets for over 20 years every week. A conversation that I had with John that comes to mind is when he told me that I was a good man and he sometimes listen to my sermons on social media. I will miss him, his smile and encouraging words. He was most of the time the first person I saw every Sunday morning. I pray that God's healing hand is with John's wife, family, and friends.
