“I went to SIJ with John. I just learned about his death at the funeral for another of our classmates, Matt Warner. Mostly I remember talking about movies (e.g. Ladyhawke (1985)) and the admissions going up. We also talked about him going to a concert, Bon Jovi, on the Slippery When Wet tour. We played on the playground a lot, especially keep away, which was won by whomever had the ball when the bell rang. They were good days. He was missed by his classmates this weekend for sure.”

“Took me a very long time to accept what has happened. Johnny was my best friend, he was always there for me when I needed him. I always thought we would laugh about the crazy stuff we used to do one day when we were both very old. I miss you bro. Rest in peace.”

“Johnny: Losing you has been such a catastrophic event for our family. You were my brother, my companion, my confidant and most of all my best friend. We grew up together celebrating every milestone, holiday and major event in each other's lives. I will always remember the fun and loving kid that I am proud to call my cousin. You are greatly missed by us all. I cannot express in words the hurt and emotional pain that your passing has caused me. It still doesn't seem real. So many questions that will never be answered. You are and always will be remembered as a truly loving and caring person with a huge heart. So generous and full of promise. I regret that we will not be able to spend time together but know that you are always in my mind and heart. I love you and miss you!!”
