“ Being raised in a close knit family of eight cousins — Richard, Anthony, Frank, Joe, Joe, Mary Jo and John — who were like brothers and sisters, was one of the greatest gifts of our lives. We grew up side by side, sharing not only holidays and Sundays, but the everyday moments that shaped who we became. Through laughter, challenges, and milestones, we learned the true meaning of family — love without condition, loyalty without question, and support without end. The bond we shared continues to live on in each of us and remains a lasting legacy of love. Rest in Eternal Peace, Joe. See you at Kelly Park.
